Post Office Box 4446
San Rafael, California 94913

Dear Ms. Kamena,

Thank you for writing to share your thoughts and support for the West Coast Post-Trauma Retreat (WCPR). I appreciate hearing from people devoted to such important issues facing our great state.

You couldn't be more right when you say that I take a serious interest in the well-being of our first responders. These courageous men and women face tremendous danger every day in service to us and our families. They work tirelessly, doing some of the most exacting jobs under adverse conditions. I value the commitment of organizations, such as the WCPR, to protecting those who do so much to protect us. I'm grateful that the staffer you mentioned was able to use the program to get the help she needed.

Thanks again for taking the time to write and share the role WCPR can play in helping some of California's finest.

Sincerely,
